SYDNEY METROPOLITAN

The directory is an annual publication which provides information about the NSW Department of Education and Training. The information in the directory is up-to-date as at March 2008.

The Internet/Intranet

The home page of the NSW Department of Education and Training can be found at <http://www.det.nsw.edu.au>. From here information on schools can be accessed through the Public Schools NSW link. Information on TAFE NSW institutes can be accessed through the TAFE NSW link.

Listing of School Names

To make it easier to find particular schools in the main alphabetical list, standard listing conventions are used.

Wherever possible, schools with a community name are listed together. The following rules apply:

Schools whose names begin with The are listed under the main name: The Channon is listed as Channon, The and The Entrance Public School is listed as Entrance Public School, The.

Schools whose names include north, east, south or west are generally listed by the main locality: North Auburn Public School is listed as Auburn North Public School and South Cardiff Public School is listed as Cardiff South Public School. There are exceptions, such as North Sydney Public School, South West Rocks Public School and East Hills Public School.

Corrections and Suggestions

Tell us about errors and omissions so that we do not repeat them in subsequent editions of the directory. There is a corrections page at the end of the directory. Please fill out and return as directed.

Please tell us about other information that could be included in future editions. Again, use the corrections page at the end of this directory.

Any inquiries about the directory can be made to the Schools Data Officer, Data Collections Unit, Planning and Innovation Directorate, NSW Department of Education and Training, GPO Box 33, Sydney 2001.

Regional Offices and School Education Groups

There are 10 school regions which align with TAFE NSW Institute boundaries and are supported by 78 School Education Groups (SEGs).

Each region has specialist resources including curriculum consultants, Aboriginal and equity consultants, staff to support student welfare and disabilities programs, arts and sports coordinators, regional school promotions officers, staff support officers, and school development officers.

School Education Groups provide the focus for localised delivery of teaching and learning support for schools. The School Education Group is a local point of access for community members.

The staff of Environmental Education Centres also provide training and development for teachers and community members. The main role of Environmental Education Centres is to support environmental education and education for sustainability in public schools and assist schools and communities in the Department's Sustainable Schools Program.

Multi-campus Colleges

A multi-campus college comprises a number of campuses that work together as a single educational entity across a number of separate sites. Each campus is usually specialised in the sense that it targets the needs and interests of a particular group of students. For example, junior secondary campuses are designed to support the learning needs of young adolescents, while senior secondary campuses are designed to provide a more adult learning environment for post-compulsory students. A number of multi-campus colleges are co-located with TAFE and university campuses.

The Parents as Teachers Program works with families with children from birth to three years living in areas where indicators of disadvantage are high. Parents are supported in their parenting role through parent education programs, regular home visits, group meetings and printed information. The program aims to promote children's cognitive, language, social and motor development as these are recognised as being critical to future positive learning and development. A parenting consultant is located in a parenting centre in the school.

The NSW Department of Education and Training (DET) operates 100 preschools across the State. Twenty-four of these preschools are located in communities with large numbers of Aboriginal families. Preschools provide educational programs to children for one year prior to enrolment in Kindergarten. The preschools are an integral part of the schools where they are located. Children are eligible for enrolment in preschool classes from the beginning of the school year if they turn four years of age on or before 31 July in that year.

Names in brackets are the Aboriginal names of preschools in Aboriginal communities.

Some secondary schools have a special focus, either in curriculum or in the nature of the student enrolment.

Entry to selective high schools and selective agricultural high schools will generally be dependent upon academic ability and student performance at the selective high school tests which are held for Year 6 students in March each year. A small number of vacancies may also occur in Years 8-12 each year.

Curriculum in specialist technology, languages, sports and performing arts high schools will provide a specialist focus as referred to in the school name. Enrolment at these schools may depend upon students meeting special criteria for enrolment. These criteria may include performance or audition according to the specialist focus of the school.

Senior high schools offer courses appropriate to the locally identified needs of post-compulsory school age students. Each senior high school will offer a differing curriculum based upon those needs.

State Training Centres provide a wide range of vocational education and training services and information for State Training Services. They are responsible for:

- administering and monitoring apprenticeships and traineeships registered with the Department
- engaging with industry and the community to determine and address regional and national skills shortage training needs, and monitoring vocational training programs funded by the Department
- overseeing contractual funding arrangements between the Department and registered training organisations, and group training companies
- working in collaboration with other sections of the Department (e.g. school careers advisors and regional vocational education consultants to promote school-based part-time apprenticeships/traineeships, trade schools, and vocational training programs for high school students),
- processing applications for Trade Skills Recognition from workers from NSW and overseas, and
- co-ordinating regional heats for the annual NSW State Training Awards.

Field and administrative staff, based in the Centres, can provide advice and assistance in person, over the phone or during a site visit to your school, college or workplace.

State Training Centres are located in 9 regional and metropolitan locations with an additional four outposted officers servicing major population centres. Phone 13 28 11 to be connected to your nearest Centre, at the cost of a local call.

The Department provides a service, through the NSW Vocational Training Tribunal (VTT), for people who are seeking recognition of their trade skills and the issue of trade certification in order to work in NSW. Applicants include people who have:

- a) worked in a trade for more than four years but never undertaken supplementary formal training or
- b) worked in a trade and gained formal qualifications issued in other states/territories in Australia or overseas or
- c) attained formal qualifications but require NSW trade certification in order to apply for licenses from a NSW licensing authority.

Applications for trades recognition are assessed by a panel of VTT appointed industry experts. Successful applicants are granted either: (a) a Certificate of Proficiency - that recognises on the job experience and relevant formal training undertaken; or (b) a Craft Certificate - that recognises on the job experience only. Applicants may be sent for a trade skills test with a registered training organisation as part of their assessment. Unsuccessful applicants may be referred to further vocational training if they wish to re-apply. For more information, a brochure and application form (including translated versions) contact:

25 Trade Schools will be operating across NSW in locations with identified trade skills shortages. They will be attached to existing high schools and TAFE NSW colleges and allow students to take part in school based apprenticeships and traineeships while completing their Higher School Certificate. NSW HSC students who successfully complete part of a trade course while at school will be given credit towards the completion of their apprenticeship.

Priority Schools Programs (PSP) support schools serving high concentrations of low socio-economic status (SES) communities. These programs include the Priority Schools Funding Program (PSFP) and the Priority Action Schools (PAS) Program. These programs provide additional assistance to school communities to improve the literacy and numeracy achievement of students in schools with high concentrations of students from low socio-economic status backgrounds.

Types and Classifications of Schools

Government schools are designated Public, Infants, Central, Community, High, Schools for Specific Purposes and Environmental Education Centres. A school's classification is generally based on the number of students enrolled in the first term of the year of classification. When classification changes are approved, the reclassification usually operates from the beginning of the following school year.

Infants and Public Schools

Infants and public schools provide instruction in accordance with the primary curriculum. Where necessary, public schools may also provide part of the secondary curriculum. Infants schools enrol students from Kindergarten to Year 2 and public schools enrol students from Kindergarten to Year 6. Infants and public schools are classified as follows:

Class 6	An enrolment of 25 or less
Class 5	An enrolment from 26 to 159
Class 4	An enrolment from 160 to 300
Class 3	An enrolment from 301 to 450
Class 2	An enrolment from 451 to 700
Class 1	An enrolment of more than 700

Central Schools

Central schools have primary and secondary departments and may be established where there is an enrolment in secondary classes of 20 or more students, including at least 8 students above Year 7. Central schools enrol students from Kindergarten to Year 10 or from Kindergarten to Year 12.

Central schools are classified as follows:

Class 4	An enrolment from 26 to 159
Class 3	An enrolment from 160 to 300
Class 2	An enrolment from 301 to 450
Class 1	An enrolment of more than 450

Community Schools

There are five community schools catering for Kindergarten to Year 12: Lucas Heights Community School, Hunter School of Performing Arts, Southern Cross School, Wadalba Community School and Evans River Community School. They have been classified as Class 8 or 9, and the principals of these schools are classified as secondary principals.

High Schools

High Schools enrol secondary students only and provide instruction in accordance with curricula leading to the School Certificate and the Higher School Certificate. High Schools enrol students from Year 7 to Year 12 and are classified as follows:

Class 9	An enrolment of 900 or less
Class 8	An enrolment of more than 900

Schools for Specific Purposes

Schools for Specific Purposes cater for students with specific needs. They are classified as follows: the number of permanent full time teaching staff at a school is multiplied by 30; the resulting number is then used to classify the school using the same scale as for public schools.

Environmental Education Centres

Environmental Education Centres do not have permanent enrolments. They are classified as follows:

Class 1	Those centres with less than 2 full-time equivalent teachers
Class 2	Those centres with 2 or more full-time equivalent teachers

The alphabetical list of schools provides details for each government school. Following are notes on the contents of the alphabetical list and the codes used.

The first line of each entry includes the full school name, and the schools administrative code, shown in parentheses. The Foreword on page 2 details the listing procedures used in regard to schools beginning with The, and those with North, East, South and West in their names.

The second line of the entry contains the address of the school. The postal address is indicated in parentheses if the school has a post office box. The postal address town/suburb is as for the street address unless indicated otherwise. The third line of the entry contains the school's phone numbers and fax number.

The fourth line of the entry includes the School Education Group (SEG) the school is in, the classification of the school, transfer points, and allowances.

Transfer points are points allocated to teachers for each year of service at the school. TP1 indicates one transfer point for each year of service. Transfer points range from 1 to 8.

A is the abbreviation for the allowance connected with the school:

- The allowance for socio-economic isolation is shown as a number from 1 to 10, with 1 representing the greatest isolation.
- H or C indicates an allowance for hot or cold climate.
- L indicates those schools in the Western Division, which start one week later in Term 1.
- Y indicates schools in the City of Broken Hill.

Classification

Classification is shown as a number from 1 to 6 for public and infants schools; 1 to 4 for central schools; 8 to 9 for high schools and community schools; and 1 to 6 for schools for specific purposes. See the previous page for further details of the classification of schools.

The type of school is shown by a letter: P for primary schools, I for infants schools, C for central and community schools, S for secondary or high schools, SSP for Schools for Specific Purposes, and EEC for Environmental Education Centres. In cases such as Norfolk Island Central School, where the school is run by the Department of Education and Training but paid for by another authority, an asterisk rather than a letter is used, eg, 2*.
